Day & Time: Friday, November 16, 12:30 p.m. – 3:00 p.m.

New York, NY – November 20, 2018 -- The Business Outreach Center (BOC) Network is pleased to announce that it hosted the 2018 BOC Awards Friday, November 16th to celebrate the successes of local small businesses from NYC’s diverse communities. Every day, BOC enables motivated entrepreneurs to improve their economic prospects, helping them gain needed financing, expert guidance and connections to build their businesses, create jobs, and make significant contributions to our local economy and society.

The attendees of the BOC Awards include small business owners, entrepreneurs, representatives of government, business, and nonprofit entities – all coming together to recognize the accomplishments of our extraordinary clients who were selected by the members of our collaborative partnership network: BOC Brooklyn, BOC Queens, CMP (formerly Chinatown Manpower Project), Washington Heights and Inwood Development Corporation, and Staten Island BOC (West Brighton Community LDC).

The Business Outreach Center Network thanks its many supporters: led by JP Morgan Chase, Citi and M&T Bank, with additional thanks to Armand Corp., Valley National Bank, Bank of the West, ConEdison, Santander Bank, Capitol One, Foshing Bank, The Driscoll Group, Hunter Roberts, National Grid, Spring Bank, NCheng LLP, Sterling National Bank, McKissack & McKissack, Positive Workforce Organization, Toll International LLC, CMP / Chinatown BOC, Honeydew Drop Childcare Services, Publimax Printing, and our BOC clients, members and partners.

Errol Louis, NY1 was our outstanding Master of Ceremonies. Presenting the awards were City Councilmembers Margaret Chin and Donovan Richards, SBS Commissioner Gregg Bishop, Dean Donald Gibson of O’Malley School of Business, Manhattan College, Bomi Kim of NYC EDC, Christine Curella from the NYC Mayor’s Office, Nicole Roco of Citi Community Development and Dennis Reeder of Washington Heights Inwood Development Corporation. Dennis Reeder also received a special honor for his years of service to the Washington Heights and Inwood community and as a partner to BOC Network. The 13 businesses receiving BOC Awards exemplify the passion for excellence, commitment to community, and motivation to overcome obstacles that all small business owners require to succeed. They include:
